

You will be interviewed by an eligibility worker who will ask for information about your income, assets, and private health insurance coverage. You will be asked to prove what you say is true.

If you are too sick to come to the Local Department of Social Services office to apply, you may send someone to the interview for you who is knowledgeable about your money situation and other circumstances.